Suspects in custody following non-fatal shooting in Columbia

Howard County police have two suspects in custody following a non-fatal shooting this evening in the Long Reach area of Columbia.

Police were called to Old Dobbin Road around 5:15 p.m. for a report of a male subject in the roadway who had been shot in the leg. Officers arrived and quickly located the victim and two suspects in the area, and recovered a handgun.

The victim was airlifted to Shock Trauma from the parking area of Long Reach High School, but the crime is unrelated to the school and did not happen on school property. The victim's condition is unknown at this time.

Police are working to identify the two suspects in custody and the victim.

Additional information will be released as becomes available.
